

Come And Behold

He reigns above all kings and all dominion
He roars with awesome majesty
His Name, His voice, they terrify the foulest demon
All things are subject to his power

*Come and behold the Lord of life
He's the King of Kings
Come and bow down towards the One
Who created everything
For He is great His love is complete
Full of grace and Truth
So strong yet still a friend to the weak
He's the Saviour who died for you*

He knows my thoughts, my fears, my secret longings
His eyes discerning everything
His grace, His love have paid in full for my salvation
I know that I have been forgiven

I will come and kneel before You
I just want to meet You here
I will come and press in closer
And enjoy Your love
