

River Of Life

Our love affair began
I knew so little, yet You drew me in
You captivated me, changed my life
Swimming in Your love is where I belong
So let Your love flow

River of life run through, centre of my soul
River of life run through
Nothing can compare with You
River of life run through, lover of my soul
River of life run through
You're the source of strength I know

Draw close
I long to feel the warmth of Your embrace
To feel Your tender kiss
Come run away
You're my desire I am lost in You
Oh I love You

I cannot hide
You're always there beside me
Unconditional love
So pure, You never harm me
