

What Love

I have never done a thing
To merit what You've given me
You have hidden all the things
That should have cast my soul into the grave

Now You Lord are my rock
In whom I'll shelter everyday
Oh come down, take hold of me
Keep me from those who hinder me

*What love
You have given
What Love
From Your river of life
What Love
Poured from heaven
What love
I can't deny*

I have never known a love
Like that
Which You have poured on me
So I'll love for You alone
And love You for eternity
